

Alaska State Parks and the Department of Fish and Game
Refuge Program have teamed up for an art show titled:
Palettes in the Parks—A Plein Air Painting Art Showcase

ART SHOW

Palettes in the Park

An Arts in the Parks Showcase

Artist Jim Doc Leach painting at
Red Squirrel Lake in the Chena
River Recreation Area.

Artist Dawn Aumann painting
Independence Mine State Historical Park.

Friday, April 5, 2013

5-9 p.m.

Arctic Rose Gallery and
Art Center

In beautiful downtown Anchorage

423 W. 5th Ave., Anchorage, AK 99501

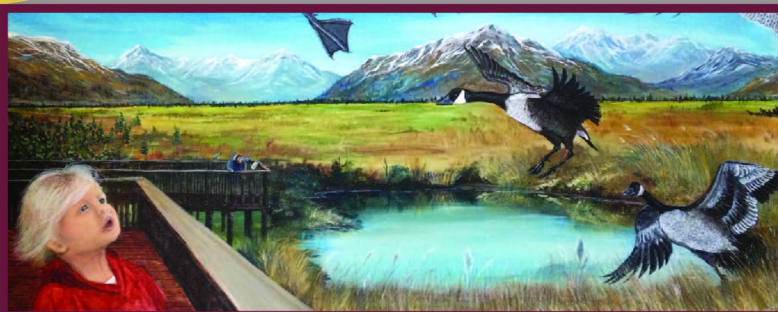

The show will feature works of art painted on location in Alaska State Parks and State Wildlife Refuges.

Highlights:

- Door Prizes from Blaines and Arctic Rose Gallery
- Music and Food
- Live Bald Eagle from Bird TLC
- Kids arts and crafts
- Group painting project

Red Squirrel Campground at Chena River State Recreation Area—
Artist: Denise Broussard

Potter Marsh Anchorage Coastal Wildlife Refuge—Artist: Janet Waldron

For more information visit www.alaskastateparks.org, or contact David Griffin, State Parks Project Coordinator, by phone (907) 269-8696, or email david.griffin@alaska.gov

